

Curriculum Vitae

Mélodie Dupuis MA

902-648-5028

melodiepeernetwork@gmail.com

Languages: English and French
Published author:
What's the impact of sexual violence? (eBook 2022)
Depression = Trauma (eBook 2021)
Parenting with natural consequences (eBook 2019)
Art and Science of Communication (2018)
Parent Tough Talks: What you need to know about sexual interference (2017)
KIND Kids Independent Not Dependent (2009)

Education Experience:

2003 Certificate of Internet Counselling (Toronto University: Faculty of Social Work)
1999 Master's in Clinical Psychology: Family Therapy (University of Antioch: Seattle)
1996 300 hours training: addictions, suicide, trauma, sexual abuse therapy
(BC Justice Institute)
1986 Peer Helping Institute (University of Victoria BC)
1984 Post graduate studies in Developmental Psychology and Curriculum
Development (University of Alberta)
1984 Bachelor of Special Education: Developmental Psychology
(University of Alberta)

Career Experience:

2020 - current Zoom info-workshops: Biology and understanding of depression;
Communicating with confidence; Understanding impacts of trauma; Biology and dynamics of abuse cycle; Biology and understanding suicide ideation;
Understanding sexual violence and its impact; Bullying in the workplace;
Parenting with natural consequences; Human Biological Milestones

2020 Children's Hospital of Eastern Ontario (CHEO): Volunteer editor/translator for French and English Mental Health publications (Dr. Michael Cheng)

2017-2019 Info-workshops: Peer Support Training for mental health; Sexual Interference; Self-advocacy; Communication life skills

2016 Université Ste Anne instructor for Techniques de communication

2014- 2016 NSCC instructor Social Services Program in Human Services:
Developmental Psychology; Interpersonal Insights workshops: bullying in the workplace for all 13 campuses; Art of Helping in the Professions (Burr Ridge Campus)

1999-2010 BC licenced Clinical Therapist: Salt Spring Island, Sydney BC, Duncan, BC
BCRCC Licence #1404